

Overture-9300

Series

Self-Validation Scanner

XWebScan Module

The Overture 9300 Self-Validation Scanner uses the XWebScan Module as an extension of the XWebValidation Module to allow scanning of a transient credential to automatically apply a pre-set validation. The Overture-9300 Scanner connects directly to the Overture Management System and applies the validation to the credential. Patrons can self-validate in a controlled environment similar to movie theaters.

